

WEST ESSEX BOARD OF REALTORS® (WEBOR)

311 Claremont Ave, Montclair, NJ 07042

(973) 655-9660 fax (973) 655-8070

<http://www.westessexbor.com> e-mail: info@westessexbor.com

QUADRENNIAL CODE OF ETHICS COURSE

You may take Code of Ethics training class on-line at the following:

www.Realtor.org

You will be required to input your NRDS ID (national realtor® data base system), if you don not have please call the WEBOR office at (973) 655-9660

REGISTERING: a NRDS ID is required to register. Registration information is requested in the first few screens of the course.

New Members: New Member Code of Ethics Orientation: Course for new Realtors®.

Existing Realtors®: Quadrennial Realtor® Ethics Training: Course for existing Realtors. This course has been updated for the second cycle of training. If you did not complete the first cycle upon completion you will be classified as fulfilling the first cycle only.

OUTLINE: The course includes a final exam and requires a minimum score of at least 75% to receive credit.

Confirmation: A certificate of completion is e-mailed to individuals who successfully completed the course. Please print and keep for your records. WEBOR is notified via-email of your completion. (You may take the course in segments; it will automatically start in the next section you need to complete)

Note: this course is mandated by the National Association of REALTORS® and completion is a provision of membership.